

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY UNIVERSITY LIBRARY GRADUATE STUDENT USE AND READERSHIP SURVEY

This is an appropriate time to examine current library use—physical and virtual--by faculty, students and staff to ensure that the Syracuse University Library continues to meet the needs and requirements of its constituents. This survey is an important element toward achieving this objective. Because of the importance of the survey to the University community, we need a high response rate.

Some of the questions involve a “critical incident” method for establishing information seeking and reading patterns, in which we ask about the last time you used the library—virtually or physically. This last use may not be typical, but when combined with other responses, will give us the range and combination of patterns that exist and should be considered. This method provides a powerful decision-making tool that has been used to analyze nearly 25,000 survey responses from scientists, other faculty and other professionals on use of information resources over the years.

Your answers are extremely important to the library and, ultimately, to you. Your responses will be kept confidential and reported only in an aggregated manner.

If you have any questions or comments about the survey, please contact Associate Provost Bruce Kingma (443-7170) or survey staff at Insert contact information.

SECTION I: GRADUATE STUDENT LIBRARY USE

Survey questions ask about not only your physical use of the library but also your use of online resources including the library website and virtual links to online journals and resources.

1. In the last 30 days, approximately how many times did you physically use any of the libraries that are part of the University Library including Bird, Math, Law, etc for research, using a journal or book, the library café, library commons, library instruction, special collections, interlibrary loan, or to work with a professional librarian? (if zero, write 0) _____
2. In the last 30 days, approximately how many times did you virtually use the University Library online resources including using the library website, online journals or book, electronic reserves, or email an inquiry to a professional librarian? (if zero, write 0) _____
3. In the last 30 days, approximately how many articles have you retrieved and read from the University Library during a physical visit*? _____ How many articles online? _____ Of these, how many did you photocopy or print? _____
